Washington, D. C. 20510

My dear Senator:

I have received your letter of February 18th enclosing material published by [redacted] ^{TENN.} which was sent to you by an unidentified individual in Morro Bay, California. I appreciate your furnishing this to me and can tell you that literature of this publisher has come to our attention before.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE: Senator Hatfield is on the Special Correspondents List. His enclosure was published by [redacted] of Memphis, Tennessee, with whom we have had no prior correspondence. We have had citizen inquiries concerning the literature he distributes. He is self-described as a printer of patriotic literature. One [redacted] was a member of the United Klans of America--Tennessee and attended a 1966 meeting of the White Party of America in Baltimore.

Obviously, if the mere mention of "Chappaquiddick", so shocks and paralyzes Mr. Kennedy that he is unable to talk even, a point so great that he could have collapsed on the spot...the Chappaquiddick is the key with which to decide him to postpone his running for President in '72, which he surely did so plan judging from all the work he has put in on building up his and family's image, plus of course, his work on the Gallup Poll. Also, that word with it's terrible shocking effect on him, properly handled by his opposition, would also defeat him...for he would ever and always during the elections, stand in fear and horror awaiting it to happen...this being in case he did run.

Whether or not his emotional response to that "word" is an indication of Guilt...Many millions will undoubtedly believe it to be so.

I do feel that Mr. Kennedy has been instrumental in causing much of the actions in the attacks on the F. B. I., mostly through his political Congressional friends operating with and for him. Which attacks began at the time of the indictment of the Rev. [redacted] and others. Just think, How Nice it would be for him, to be able to control the F. B. I. by having "his" man in as Director, and to Thus control indictments.

BOWLER

A boondocks boondoggle

By D. W. BOWLER
Gazette Editor

"My golly, you are in the boones, man."
With that remark we greeted one handsome, trim and graying U.S. Navy veteran of World War II who came to call at our citadel of opinion influencing at the break of July.

He wasn't from Continental Oil, Humble, Central Exchange, Montana Power, MDU, the Anaconda Co., Farmers Union, International Well Diggers local No. 2345 or Sons of I Am.

WE COULD AGREE with Hayes of Lockheed that it was probably as just to aid this benefactor of humanity as it was to pay Senator Eastland or John Wayne to farm or back a loan for a used car lot via the Small Business Administration.

It was understandable that Lockheed's phenomenal success at getting arms contracts from the Pentagon had led it down the primrose path into the ungrudging land of the Unk-unks. To the uninitiated, unk-unks are defense for unknown costs.

By CLARK MOLLENHOFF
(C) Register-Tribune

WASHINGTON — It was an excited young crowd that jammed the fourth floor room of the old Senate Office Building to hear Senator Edward Kennedy give his opinion of the publication of the material from the "top secret" Pentagon papers about the Vietnam War.

The tall and handsome 39-year-old senator is a celebrity in his own right now and it is no longer necessary to identify him as the youngest brother of the assassinated President or the young man who read the tribute during the memorial service for the late Senator Robert F. Kennedy that tragic day in June, 1968.

IT IS NO WONDER some of President Richard Nixon's key advisers view with alarm the number of Kennedy people flocking to the standards of Senator George McGovern of South Dakota and Senator Harold Hughes of Iowa.

For some, the presidential bids of both McGovern and Hughes are regarded as mere holding operations until Teddy Kennedy can get his own bandwagon moving, even though Kennedy's press man, Dick Drayne, repeatedly has said Kennedy did not plan to be a candidate for president in 1972.

Few things could be more exciting to that young crowd on the morning of June 22, 1971, than a few words from the Massachusetts senator on the subject on every one's lips that week — publication of articles and documents from the "top secret" — sensitive 47-volume history of the Vietnam War.

The first segments appearing in the New York Times and Washington Post had emphasized alleged deceptions by President Johnson in connection with his 1964 campaign against Senator Barry Goldwater.

IF YOU LISTENED to interpretations from Senator Goldwater, former Senator Wayne Morse (Dem. Ore.) or Senator Ernest Gruening (Dem. Alaska) the papers proved that President Johnson "lied us into war." Morse and Gruening also seemed to make a concerted effort to tie the papers on the period ending in 1968 to what they called a "continuation" of those policies by President Nixon.

Senator Kennedy appeared courageous in agreeing to publication of articles from the papers which discussed President Kennedy's role in the Vietnam situation. The Boston Globe had carried stories that morning which were headlined: "Secret Pentagon Documents Bare JFK Role in Vietnam War" and "Kennedy OK's Covert Action." Editorially, the Globe declared "the truth finds a way."

The editorial was published next to a Herblock cartoon blaming stern-visaged Richard Nixon and Attorney General John Mitchell for "attempted censorship" which was portrayed as "new figure on the American scene."

"WE ARE CONFIDENT that our own country will have no part in censorship, and that, in the end, our courts will uphold the people's right to know and the freedom of the press that is so essential to that right. As long as we have a democracy, the truth will find a way to emerge," the editorial said.

In keeping with the popular theme of the week in the nation's newspapers, Senator Kennedy gave his approval to publication of the 47-volume study even if it reflected unfavorably upon the Kennedy brothers. It was the "people's right to know," he told the group of young men and women crowded into the room to listen.

The question that followed broke up the meeting. "Then why don't you tell your lawyers to permit the Massachusetts grand jury on the Chappaquiddick matter to be published?" asked one young man, referring to the investigation report which followed Edward Kennedy's auto accident which resulted in the crowning death of a young woman.

The serious, confident smile that usually plays around Kennedy's face vanished. Stunned, he turned white. His jaw froze. He stood there for a moment and then simply turned and walked out, without trying to answer.

A pall settled over the room. Then the students started buzzing. Some were disappointed that Kennedy had walked out; others resented the questioner who had broken up the gathering. Still others raised questions about how far a presidential bandwagon could roll without having the question raised again.

Many felt it a pertinent question particularly at a time when there was so much emphasis on "the people's right to know" about actions of public figures.

It will be asked as long as he has no answer.

Dear sirs :

The American people have a right to know the facts, the news media keeps shouting ! Why do they refuse to make public this (news) bit of history of a great unknown ? It's been denied the American people for over 30 years.

It's a sad day for this country when its greatest living poet and lyric writer must remain unknown and unrewarded in this the richest lane on earth. Does the news media intend to remain silent and stupid about it untill death do her part ? How bias can they get ?

I now wonder if the permissiveness, graft and pride of this fat world is already equal to that of days before the flood, Sodom, or Rome ? How much will the American people risk or respond to any bit of truth or justice? How gutless is our politicians in this matter and how Godless is our Government?

I'm available for interview or test to the contrary. You are free and invited to investigate this matter without restriction. Please do so and then give to Caesar that which belongs. If it may appear to be to fantastic for you to swallow at first, must you brand me a nut without evidence to justify your indifference and incompetence in this matter, or is it that you can be bought so damn cheap - if the shoe fits?

Any stoyr (all or part) of this must be written to enhance the glory of all parties involved . The music makers themselves were evidently unaware of the source from whence many of their lyrics came and in no wise to be charged of default. The great mystery of it all and fact she has not yet suffered a hit failure to my knowledge in a space of 40 years, nor even one in 40 songs, is something to be reconed with. A feat of this nature and magnitude has never before happened and will never again be achieved on this planet, - not in a million years. Barry Winick

An Unheralded Lyricist

By CHARLES ALLONBY
PIERCE CITY — Honoring Mrs. Lucy Wight of nearby Wentworth, a pre-Mother's Day testimonial was set by her son Jason in the cemetery here last week and could possibly cause some controversy in the nation's song-writing circles.

Imprinted on the monument of Carthage marble are Wight's statements which say that Mrs. Wight is the author and origin of more than twenty lyrics which have become popular in the last forty years.

Most of these are listed by name on the monument and probably the most important is "White Christmas," a song which has had sales in the millions. Origin of many others is claimed for her by her son, including "Tumbling Tumbleweeds," "Old Spinning Wheel" and "Pennies from Heaven," among the more popular.

Mrs. Wight was born Jan. 1, 1894, on what is known as the "Old Crewse Place" at Manes, Mo., and for about all of her 76 years has shown a propensity for poetry.

First recollection of her poetical nature, she says, came when as a small girl she showed her father, Frank Farmer, a little poem she had written. "He called me his little poet," Mrs. Wight said, "and that just about thrilled me to death."

She then told how the lyrics of "White Christmas" came to be written. "I was writing my Christmas cards one day," she explained, "when I looked out the window and saw the snow coming down soft and white. Then the sun came out and the snow glistened in the treetops. One of the cards I was addressing had a picture of Santa Claus in his sleigh riding over a house-top."

"The words came to me naturally and I wrote them down."

Pausing in the work of setting the monument, son Jason added other information. "She had left her mark with other lyrics," he said, "even before those depression days of the 1930s with, for example, 'Paper Doll'. These lyrics went out sometime before the first copyright date of 1930."

Members of her family did little to encourage her in those early days, Mrs. Wight remembers, when they told her it was useless to send the lyrics to possible publishers and that she "would never get a dime for them."

She said she told them the lyrics would do no earthly good lying around the house and added "Maybe they'll make somebody happy."

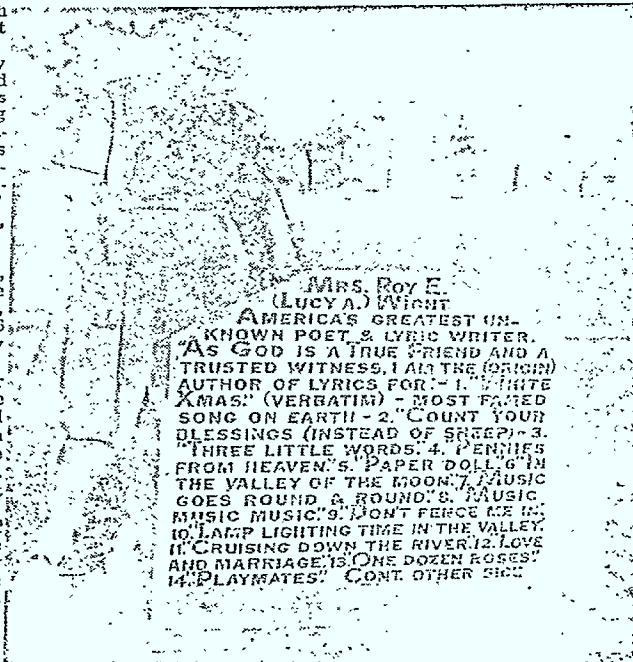

"They made a lot of people happy," son Jason said, "But one thing's sure, in the history of the country's music no one has ever given so much and wound up with such an empty purse."

Mrs. Wight continues to write in the family homestead just outside Wentworth and now has in preparation a song she has entitled "The Flowers". That song is in its final draft and she hopes to complete it soon and offer it for publication — and payment — to one of several music publishers who have asked to see some of her lyrics.

Son Jason is a construction worker employed on structural steel projects in various parts of the country, and work on permanently locating the monument on a concrete base will be undertaken as soon as he returns from Utah.

Mrs. Lucy Wight (above) takes a close look at her monument as it is ready for placement on the family plot in the Pierce City cemetery. Below, she watches as her son, Jason, puts the finishing touches to the monument.

Dear Senators,

This is only a part of the story. You can't begin to know what an important issue it could be if handled right or what impact it could have on the American people. I beg an investigation for the good of all, but I'm broken & helpless. Respectfully,

VISIT OF SENATOR EDWARD KENNEDY
TO OCALA, FLORIDA,
ON JANUARY 28, 1972

Referral/Consult

On January 28, 1972, [redacted] Administrative Assistant to Senator Edward Kennedy, Washington, D. C., advised the Washington Field Office of the FBI that Senator Kennedy's office was in receipt of a letter from [redacted] Gainesville, Florida, which advised some trouble or attempts to embarrass Senator Kennedy might take place at Silver Springs Shores near Ocala, Florida, where Senator Kennedy was to speak on January 28, 1972.

Investigation at Callahan and Fernandina Beach, Florida, by a special agent of the FBI determined [redacted] is a well known, respected, long time citizen of Callahan, Florida. No one by the name of [redacted] is known in Callahan, Florida; however, one [redacted] is reported to be a newcomer to Callahan and not well known in the area.

Investigation at Gainesville, Florida, by a special agent of the FBI revealed that the name [redacted] was not known to Intelligence Officers of any local police agencies.

VISIT OF SENATOR EDWARD KENNEDY
TO OCALA, FLORIDA,
ON JANUARY 28, 1972

On January 28, 1972, Captain [redacted] Marion County Sheriff's Office, Ocala, Florida, advised as follows:

Senator Edward Kennedy and party arrived at Ocala, Florida, in a private plane at 7 p.m., January 27, 1972, and are guests of [redacted] owner. Kinsman Stud Farms located near Martel, Florida. [redacted] has employed 8 to 10 men from Pinkerton Detective Agency to guard Kennedy and party. Captain [redacted] advised his office has also assigned men to guard Kennedy and party and the private plane utilized by Kennedy. b6 b7C

Two Ocala women have been attempting to polarize action against Kennedy in the form of a demonstration to take place when Kennedy speaks at Silver Springs Shores near Ocala. at 8 p.m., January 28, 1972. One woman is Mrs. [redacted] Silver Springs Shores, who is disgruntled with the Kennedy family. She lost a son in Vietnam and holds it against the late President John F. Kennedy. She is also involved in litigation with Silver Springs Shores over her residence and is disgruntled because Kennedy is being allowed to speak at Silver Springs Shores. Mrs. [redacted] has purchased radio time for spot announcements on WIMC radio, Ocala, in which she is encouraging people who are against Senator Kennedy to contact her. She plans a demonstration to take place during Kennedy's speech; however, her attorney, [redacted] [redacted] Ocala, advised her against such action. b6 b7C

The second woman is [redacted] Ocala, wife of [redacted] who is area coordinator of the John Birch Society, Ocala. Mrs. [redacted] has contacted Marion County Sheriff's Office and inquired as to rules concerning public demonstrations and picketing.

VISIT OF SENATOR EDWARD KENNEDY
TO OCALA, FLORIDA,
ON JANUARY 28, 1972

[] advised two men, whose names were unknown, who reside in Silver Springs Shores, have stated as residents of Silver Springs Shores, they have a right to attend the meeting at which time Kennedy is speaking without payment of $15 charge and they will crash the meeting. The site of Kennedy's speech is a new modern building of glass walls, which is located on a small lake. Marion County Sheriff's Office plans to have 15 to 20 men assigned to cover event including deputies patrolling the lake adjacent to the building in a patrol boat. After Kennedy's speech, he will attend a private reception for him at the residence of []

Specimens received 1/3/72

- Q1 Envelope postmarked "NEW YORK N.Y. 1971 AF PM 12 DEC" bearing handwritten address "Birch Byah, Senator U. S. Senate Office Building Washington, D. C."
- Q2 One page typewritten letter beginning "Dear Mr. Byah - It is inconceivable that you..."

Result of examination:

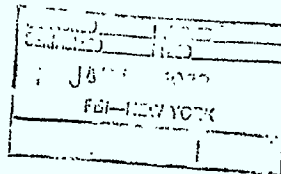

Q1 and Q2 were not identified with other submissions in the Anonymous Letter File.

The typewriting on Q2 most closely resembles standards for a Royal pica style of type spaced 10 letters to the inch.

No indented writing was noted on Q1 or Q2 and no watermark was noted on Q1.

Q2 bears the watermark "Eagle A Trojan Bond" which is owned by the Brown Company, Los Angeles, California.

The evidence will be returned separately. Photographs are retained.

This is to advise that Raymond Dunlap, U. S. Secret Service (USSS) Headquarters, Washington, D. C., today advised USSS is giving Senator Kennedy protective service.

Dunlap related Senator Kennedy made written request to Secretary of the Treasury for this protection. As the Secretary did not have the authority to give the Senator the desired protection, the matter was brought to the attention of the President who authorized the protection which went into effect Friday, 9/8/72. At present a protection termination date has not been set. voiced the opinion that the service would continue protecting Kennedy until after the Presidential campaigns.

Mr. Taylor,

Regarding your piece printed in Gannet papers of today.-
"Rose Kennedy ok's Ted for President".

First off your piece infers there is something immoral, sinister, Unamerican about running for President especially if one is a Kennedy. What is so horrible about it ? I hasten to add that though we believe Sen. Kennedy would make a great President and would vote for him- we do not want him to run because he will be assassinated, furthermore none of his family or friends want him to either. Everyone that we know wishes Sen. Kennedy would not only not run for President but get out of public life entirely.

We find it the epitomy of broad-mindedness, souls remarkably free of bitterness, revenge or hate that Kennedy would even want to be President of this lousy country, Since the assassination of Sen. Robert Kennedy, I have been badgering my husband to move to Nova Scotia, I hate the country.

Having ESP I have "seen" Sen. Kennedy dead before the end of 1972 many times. He will be dead by violence and when that happens I will look you up and [redacted] and slap your faces very hard.

b6

It is my opinion that you and your ilk are directly responsible for JFK-MLK-RFK assassinations

DEAR MR. HOOVER:

WHILE READING CONGRESSMAN H. R. GROSS'S LEGISLATIVE NUMBER 1165 DATED APRIL 19TH, I CAME ACROSS THE FOLLOWING
CERPT WHICH CAUGHT MY ATTENTION:

HEADLINE IN WASHINGTON POST (APRIL 13): "CHAPPAQUIDICK, A BILL TO SAVE IT."

THEREAFTER FOLLOWS THE STORY THAT SENATOR EDWARD M. KENNEDY, OF MASSACHUSETTS, HAS INTRODUCED A BILL (S. 3485) TO MAKE THE ISLAND OF CHAPPAQUIDICK A NATIONAL PARK AT A COST OF $20 MILLION IN FEDERAL FUNDS. THE BILL SAYS THE LEGISLATION AND FUNDS ARE NECESSARY TO "PRESERVE AND CONSERVE THE UNIQUE CHARACTERISTICS OF A UNIQUE AREA."

IN CASE ANYONE HAS FORGOTTEN, CHAPPAQUIDICK IS THE SCENE OF KENNEDY'S MIDNIGHT ESCAPE IN 1969 WHEN A CAR HE WAS DRIVING
WENT OFF A BRIDGE ON A LONELY DIRT ROAD DROWNING HIS 28 YEAR OLD COMPANION, MARY JO KOPECHNE. AND IF THE AREA IS "UNIQUE" SO ARE THE LEGAL PROCEEDINGS AND CONDITIONS SURROUNDING THE YOUNG WOMAN'S DEATH, MOST OF WHICH ARE STILL WRAPPED IN DEEPEST SECRECY.

THE NERVE OF THIS MAN NEVER CEASES TO AMAZE ME. IT IS JUST UNBELIEVABLE ANYONE WOULD EVER DO SUCH A THING AS THIS. THOUGHT YOU WOULD BE INTERESTED IN SEEING THIS.

WITH KINDEST REGARDS, I AM

SINCERELY,

On 11/29/72, SA [REDACTED] of Secret Service Liaison telephonically contacted Inspector [REDACTED] and advised he had received a copy of an undated letter signed "Concerned Citizens" addressed to Mr. Gray stating that [REDACTED] believed to be employed in the Boston Office of Senator Kennedy (D - Mass.), "could render the Senator in a dangerous position," because of her unusual behavior. [REDACTED] inquired as to what, if any, action the FBI had taken concerning this communication. He was requested to furnish [REDACTED] a copy of the communication and when this was received a check was made of records at Bureau Headquarters and no record of the communication could be found. [REDACTED] subsequently was contacted and asked if Secret Service might also have the original. He subsequently reported back that they had found the original in their office, adding that there was no indication as to how it was received. He was requested to return the original document to Mr. [REDACTED]. In the meantime [REDACTED] telephonically contacted [REDACTED] in Senator Kennedy's Office and advised her of the contents of the communication. She stated [REDACTED] is known to the office and has done part-time work in the past in the Kennedy Office in Boston. She implied that the letter in all probability was written because of personal spite, perhaps on the part of other employees in the office, although she did state that [REDACTED] "does have a problem." She was advised that the FBI was taking no further action concerning this matter.

On 12/18/72, the enclosed communication dated 12/13/72 from James J. Rowley, Director, Secret Service, was received enclosing the original copy of the anonymous communication. Secret Service has taken no action on this matter.

Dear Earl:

Attached is some material which I received in the mail last week from an obvious screwball. I think you may have a file and already know about this guy. However, he is so uptight about Senator Ted Kennedy that I am sending the material on to you with the outside chances in mind that you do not have a line on the guy and, secondly, that in the event Senator Kennedy is out this way this guy might be one you should know about and have an eye on. Incidentally, I have opted not to reply to his letter, hoping there will be no more correspondence and that he will stay in Portland and not elect to call upon me personally here in Olympia. In this connection it is probably just as well, as you know, that he should not know that "I have told the F.B.I. on him."

Incidentally, Baldy Furseth called me this morning about being nominated for membership on a national board as to which the two of you are members. I am pleased and honored that the two of you thought of me in this connection, and if selected for membership, it will be a pleasure to be associated with and to work with you on this national board.

Best regards, --

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

It has been some time since you have told the panel of the Association of American Law School, but it had motivated enough to come about with the enclosed information that thus far has not been in the front pages of the "news-media".

At any rate it does point out to you and others in the "system" of judicial affairs, that this is still "omitted-news". And yet it was indeed earth-shaking at the time it came out of the old Pentagon with many appropriations "cut" by the Senator Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts, to whom I wrote as you can see by the dates upon the enclosed xerox copy.

The other enclosed xerox copy, dated and mailed to an attorney in the city of Boston, Massachusetts brings out an interesting fact that during that period of time no one was interested to pursue the matter in a follow up program for justice.

Since the assassination did involve USAF-OSI Officers and agents who were caught in their tracks of "trumping-up-PX charges" against me in the McChord AFB, Tacoma, Wn., facility, that the senator Edward Moore Kennedy thought it all could be handled as a big joke by "reclassifying this certified genius as a "charlatan" instead of coming to my aid, with the result that I should be ignored in the serious matter that "boomeranged" with his negligence that brought about the death of an additional member of the Kennedys, that of Senator Robert F. Kennedy, which makes for the funniest story of the year, any year.

Should you ask a Harvard Medical School graduate, he will be biased to reveal that I'm not a genius, even after taking analytical tests in 1940 upon induction period of November. Yet, the corrupted USAF-OSI personnel involved in this matter will continue to down-grade a earth-shaking story because that's the way Senator Edward Moore Kennedy wants it so, plus the strong lid with the "bottomless barrel" of CIA or his own unaccountable funds, to keep it that way forever.

I've grown accustomed to the corrupt and crooked ways the public-servant operates in such matters. It's bad enough to know he still has "senatorial-immunity" even after drowning a Mary Jo Kopechne but to continue this "game" of his is indeed something of another matter to the system of justice, and requires "no" understanding for its pure "blackballing, blackmailing" and much more. And to remind you that the United States Government is so embarrassed in this particular affair, along with the Senator Edward Moore Kennedy, that neither one thus far are agreeable to permit this information get to the courts of America.

I also have grown accustomed to their use "of psychiatry", with all the trimmings of stretched medical-standards for political purposes, self-centered interests and how they all commercialized off the subject and made it all into a big-joke and termed it all fiction---after he was forced to go to "Europe" to recuperate for his negligence in the matter. Get the monkey on his back today.

Smearing this genius has become a "national-pastime" with the US Government and Senator Edward Moore Kennedy to keep it that way.

There are many of you judges who are still sitting in your "ivory" towers as untouchables, and there some who would take an interest and come to the aid in this matter. Its just as bad as the USAF in giving me an honorable discharge for "dropping a loaded C-124 upon an engineers head, killing him outright and then they the USAF+OSI could think of no way to place a counter intelligence punch upon me, outside of transferring me to China, of which they did finally. But the important point here is to remind yourself that they called upon my former wife when I was married to her at the time to notify me about not to do that "ESP-stunt" again or they would discharge me from the service.

You can be assured I did again, but in another capacity overseas.

Seemingly they are all well funded to make promotions on the spot and yet in this case they only wanted to "smear me" so they could continue their "bureaucratic-surveillance-games" upon my healthy psyche. Needless to say, it cost them much more than they realize and its history course that could have been averted. But the USAF OSI and the Pentagon had other plans and "games" to pursue against this genius. Its just like saying that I have no right to my well being. Don't tell me that I have lost my freedom just because I entered civilian status. Be assured that I have had at least one cheap city of Portland detective upon me ever since I have left the USAF in November of 1960 here in Portland, Oregon. Its got real worse in the last three years. It seems "bureaucracy must march on".

How about getting out of your "ivory-tower" and come to my rescue today, not tomorrow, and bring about "justice" before the courts of this country, today. Its a real simple case of "catching the USAF-OSI Officers and clumsy agents in their tracks of deliberately in process of "trumping-up PX charges" and then I called them and returned the difference in a certified money after I showed such to my ex-wife at the time. Its a real shame the US Government and Senator Edward Moore Kennedy both "goofed-up" so badly and here I am still calling their hand like that of a Las Nevada gambler still waiting to let the public see my million dollar on the front pages of the newspapers clear across this country.

I thought the public servant, Senator Edward Moore Kennedy was an honest and upright gent, when I wrote him as the noted enclosed xerox copy with its date, but I do have my reservations today.

Now that you know the "Kennedys" did have the services of this ESP-Genius and Kennedy family mystic, that it is time judges like you got into the act of "exposing" the real culprits, even that it all boils down to exposing them mentioned herein today. The Oregon State Attorneys office here is interested in placing me into jail if I can ever get it into the newspapers. Its interesting to know we had a "republican-Irving Enna" who almost had his friends rescue him from driving down the wrong-way on the local freeway here some time back, killing two elderly people while under the influence of drugs and whiskey and intoxicated.

Meanwhile, "never take a back-seat to a Kennedy, ever".

I'm not going to continue my set of factors as they did occur and show off how the Senator Edward Moore Kennedy did subordinate science to ideology for his purpose, be it "political-expediency", or for the sake of the Democratic-Party, but the allowed time of his game of being the "king" of censorship is for the "birds". The past era of "kings and dictators" are gone for ever, and I wish you can find the time to tell him so, and get this particular matter exposed.

I have had every crooked method of every agency that can get involved, throw their dirty filthy "labels" at me ever since I entered civilian status of November in 1960. And they are still at it.

Furthermore, when the corrupt Senator Edward Moore Kennedy took a peak into the case, he deliberately "padlocked" all the church and college doors in throughout the country. Its bad enough to recognize that the "book-burner" from Massachusetts had his own so-called cousins or the Mafia down here to take a look at me for reasons of their own, but it wasn't for a good reason, be assured.

Out of some 5,000 attorneys in greater Boston, Massachusetts, there wasn't one of them to answer my call.

It is heartening to know 350 reporters arrived on the scene in the famed "Chappaquiddick-Trials" to see him take the "fifth". So this should not be difficult for you and your staff to get with the "new" program and do some decent justice in this matter before you. The wonderful system does require lots of money, of which the family of the Kennedy do have, which is nice. And any time the family needs help they make their "appearance" in the form of another donation of some two or three-hundred thousand dollars so some judge could be swayed to thinking this genius is an "opportunist", or worse yet a fake. I have grown to the facts that even the Boeing people had their "agents" to smear me for thats the way the system works.

So after that last statement, you can notify the USAF-OSI and the Boeing people how it all bounced back with the clumsy actions in the matter that cost this nation their President John F. Kennedy.

They all seemingly had their days cut-out for them when I was on that scene, especially in the USAF tenure of McChord AFB, Tacoma, Washington. They "jumped with joy" to smear this genius, for their evident "Pentagon-approved" game gave them the "green-light" to rape the mind of this genius at all costs. Call the USAF-OSI up on the phone at the nearby airbase and enquire, today. Be my guest.

Since the last of the "Kennedys" will never invite you to visit the city of New Bedford in Massachusetts, where they grow and teach one to become genius, that it behooves me to invite you to take in the local environment, and ask yourself what does any youngster want to think of saving the life of the President someday. There are others who just want to become doctors, and still others want to become mechanics and build better trucks. At any rate, stop by at 235 N. Front Street and receive your free lessons towards genius. Take the state of Washington's best neurologists, psychiatrists, psychologists and parapsychologists and challenge their alma-mater for a seance-sketch of Lee Harvey Oswald, while visiting in the peaks of the seasons. Let no Kennedy stop you.

The "game" of exploitation along with the "Kennedy" method of operation is certainly compounded by the "Secrecy by Government" in this particular matter. And to find there are judges like you out there preaching or lecturing the "news-media" and reporters who have lost more of their "bread and butter" because of judges like you telling others that I have "no-recourse", makes me wonder to "whom do you voice an opinion and fact that this is omitted-news and kept that way because of the blackmailer and blackballer in the United States Senate, named Senator Edward Moore Kennedy" has reclassified this into a real conspiracy that seemingly can not get onto the front pages of the newspapers across the country?

Furthermore, do remember, "they teach this subject in schools and colleges across the country, muchless in every church".

If after reading about this case at this time, be assured it indeed be very nice to hear that you have brought this to the attention of the United States Attorney General in Washington, D.C. today, for when there is a corrupt and crooked public servant like that of Senator Edward Moore Kennedy, be sure your are available to make such resign. Be sure that this particular story does get onto the "hard-working investigative news-reporters today".

Thus far you like many other judges in the land have certainly contributed towards making sure the "Kennedys" get their way of operating and then to tell me I'm not losing my freedom, or is it to think I am not supposed to have any and you should have all that power to crush "politicians opponents", like grapes?

Thank you for your kind and devoted attention on the matter and with the hopes of hearing from you real soon.

ROBERT C. FINLEY

Judge urges understanding by press, law

CHICAGO (AP) — A Washington State Supreme Court justice says journalism and law professors must share the responsibility for fair trials and a free press in America.

Justice Robert C. Finley told a panel of the Association of American Law Schools' annual meeting Monday night, "The monkey's on everybody's back."

"The news media could use some in-depth information and understanding" in the nature of the judicial process, Finley said.

But he noted, "Accuracy and quality of news reporting concerning the courts and the administration of justice has been substantially improved."

Representatives of The Associated Press Managing Editors Freedom of Information Committee, the American Newspaper Publishers Association, the Association for Education in Journalism and Sigma Delta Chi, the professional journalistic society, attended the panel session and agreed with law school professors that communications between the two groups must be improved.

Greater contact urged

The APME representative, Hu Blunk, managing editor of the Wenatchee World, Wenatchee, Wash., said he thought progress could be made through greater contact and cooperation between law students and journalism students while still in school.

A committee of law and journalism professors was selected to continue a study to determine how students in both professions can relate to each other.

Scot Powe Jr., a professor of law at the University of Texas, told the group he believes in the absolutism of freedom of the press but added: "This talisman can't be tossed out any time the press is attacked."

Newton Minow, former chairman of the Federal Communications Commission and a professor of law at Northwestern University, said the law-journalism group might undertake a study to determine exactly what effect pretrial publicity had on verdicts in legal cases.

Courses initiated

A representative of the University of Washington Journalism school said he attempted to initiate exchange courses with law school deans but was told law students are not interested.

Other journalism spokesmen suggested that legal experts be asked to lecture at journalism schools on specific problems.

Justice Finley said one area in which journalists could aid the lawyers was in dispelling myths of American justice.

"An example," he said, "is the presumption of innocence. It is a fiction and should be treated as such."

DE- The results of the Pentagon scans in reclassification of this series, has only proven his 'inconsideration and discourteous attention to the facts of not even answering this letter. Dear Mr. [redacted]

Enclosed within are two letters, one is a duplicate copy of a letter submitted in my handwriting to the Hon. Senator E. M.
Kennedy fifteen months ago. Please read that letter first.

Mr. Kennedy's investigation and efforts have brought about some
harassment. There are many associated people who know "their rape of the mind project" against me, and today I'm interested in bringing suit for damages done to me. There are no overzealous CIA agents trying to create menticidal hypnosis for the like of a genius from New Bedford, Massachusetts. Today Senator Kennedy, plus many others who did aid in the investigation know that guinea-pig [redacted] was a known genius long before he volunteered to enlist in the U.S. Army in 1940. In conclusion, its known that I was blessed with a sixth sense of (ESP) and as a genius destined to to save the life of the former President Kennedy, but the damage they had done prevented me from performing the responsibility. Today they know it was my turn for a decent day in history, but the CIA did their job. I'm sorry to say they have more money than intelligence and are over-all a bunch of power happy punks. Genius combined with ESP is indeed a force to behold and its down to a science.

Dec. 31, 1970.

Dear Senator E.M. Kennedy:

Congratulations! The Associated Press did pick your story of "snooping" by the Army Intelligence upon Adlai Stevenson, 3rd of Illinois, former Governor Otto Kerner and Representative Abner Mikva, as an interesting area to expose to the public.

It would be of great interest to have you get on with the program of "snooping" by the OSI and the USAF upon me for the past twenty years, with the added pressure from the Senator E.M. Kennedy aides. Include the CIA as well as the FBI in the deal.

Lets break open the long overdue facts of the truthful side of the "Presidential Assassination".

If honesty prevails, it should make the death of Senator R.F. Kennedy the funniest story of the year. Particularly after exposing such factual data upon the events that led to the death of President John F. Kennedy. Worse yet, most of the OSI-USAF personnel connected to keep me under surveillance knew for a fact that they overplayed their hands in the dirty game of snoring and trumping-up PX charges against this Extra-Sensory Perceptive Genius and Kennedy Family Mystic.

To date, Senator E.M. Kennedy has done nothing because he is a untrusted public-servant though elected for another term by the people of Massachusetts, but that is a different matter.

None the less, his negligence has only been an example of the fact that he failed to come to the aid of this native born constituent and then turned right around to coverup his mistakes. He has continued to keep the enclosed facts "omitted" and discredited and has continued to make genius disreputable, worse yet he has taken the liberty to send his "Irish-Mafia-Mob" that consisted his top brass from Boston. Nepotism by Kennedy is best described by me as "his Irish-Mafia" crowd which includes his cousins to make that statement accurate.

Like some corrupted OSI-USAF Officers and personnel, the USAF Secretary will deny such charges, but I'm ready to prove my side of the facts with ruthless honesty and accuracy, under oath and before members of Congress, muchless Senator E.M. Kennedy.

The OSI-USAF classified me as a dissident and trumped-up PX charges for a local excuse for their "free-ride" and made this genius to fit their plans, so now that it all backfired I demand you bring the USAF Col. P.A. Hurst and his assistant a Major -USAF up on charges for deliberate interference into the death of President John F. Kennedy. Their "CIA" type of operation is for a bunch of idiots and not for people who can keep their psyche together and still call their card before Congress, and any investigation board.

After notifying Senator E.M. Kennedy on the matter, he developed a negligent attitude of branding genius as a hum and a charlatan, of one who was destined to save the life of his brother, John.

Needless to say, his negligent decision created a backlash that sent him on a vacation to Europe for recuperation.

The "game" of shooing upon me continues to this day with no compensation for damages incurred, muchless an apology with full exposure of the matter.

It is my personal experience to mention the fact that the Secretary of the USAF has not done anything towards justice in the matter in punishment of Col. P.A. Hurst and his assistant of the past 20 Dis. OSI, McChord AFB, Wn. Neither has Senator E.M. Kennedy.

Meanwhile, since this case of invasion of privacy should be one that will make history regardless of who gets brave enough to open it up with full "congressional investigation", and I suggest today, the sooner the better. Many people upon "capitol-hill" like that of Senator E.M. Kennedy have found it politically expedient to make genius disreputable, so lets not know of such a decision. Informing me to join a bunch of homosexuals to be eligible for promotion brought a C-124 USAF aircraft upon an engineers head with resulting embarrassment, and death.

In addition, to cover-up "his padlocking the doors to all the citadels of prayer, and college doors too", that I urge and suggest you take steps to prosecution against all concerned, today. They have had their "fun and games" heeled with the CIA bottomless barrel of money against genius, right into civilian status. Lets set on with the above accusations and charges and expose this all to the public.

You have your challenge to set with the program, and please note the enclosed xerox copies, the original to Senator E.M. Kennedy and the other original to Atty. F.L. Bailey of Boston, Mass. They are back-dated several years, but nothing has been changed.

Its my hope to know that you will bring this to the attention of Secretary of defense Melvin R. Laird and all others concerned, including Senator E.M. Kennedy who deliberately squelched everything because of his corruption.

Your devoted effort in exposing the "Army-Intelligence" spying is indeed a step in the right direction and its my hope to see that this USAF-OSI story will be a real credit to you and your trusted office of responsibility.

Thank you for your kind and devoted attention on the matter, and with hopes of hearing from you real soon.

Dear Dr. [redacted]:

I, as Mr. [redacted], have enclosed within a few extra samples of my effort to bring abreast a number of folks up to date on the subject of Parapsychology, combined with genius.

The story is of a natural born genius who came into this world with better ideals than the CIA, USAF, OSI, FBI, involved personnel could ever have been assembled to witness the death of our former President John F. Kennedy, back in Dallas, Texas.

So in short, this makes for another "bomb" in the medical world that I feel you and your world renown foundation should be up to date, immediately. Assure yourself, Pope Paul-VI has many of my notes and with no doubt in my mind it will be given the well of reading for perhaps the "Galileo" censure.

To discuss the "political-paranoia" of the Kennedys and the state of Massachusetts is not the intent of the enclosed letters, but to show that I have tried to inform people in some way to be informed and up to date on the important matter in the assassination of the former President, muchless expose an indecent servant.

Since my time may be short, because the Kennedys have refused to prosecute for the deliberate interference of the "US-Government analysts" assigned to deliberately break my healthy pschic down so they could have the full research and knowledge that this genius was and is a genius, just to proof-out their original "1940" tests of my service entrance examinations, that I feel you should informed by the original genius who was destined to save the life of the former President, but was diverted deliberately by their actions, labeled under their world of and for the sake of education and science, muchless the medical world who knew they made a big mistake keeping me under their surveillance program.

Meanwhile, have your neurologists and psychiatrists and psychologists set together for a bit of accurate information in the Presidential assassination in Dallas. Its your turn to set the world informed, and none of that "hush-hush" program about the facts. I have no fear of the "powerful-corrupted-politicians" in Massachusetts, nor their dirty labels tossed at me, and I hope you will not hold any fear to bring this message to the state university in Massachusetts. It makes for a better world indeed, and the subject is like an "atomic-bomb", and no one ever has to mention the genetical deficiency of the Kennedys.

For your information and the medical world of this government, the Kennedys included, do not have enough money to purchase the "seance" snap-shots that took before in ample time to change the course of history, world history.

Have a nice day always, and with the best of health always.

Mailed to Governor F.W. Sargent.

Portland, Oregon
June 14, 1970

Dear Governor Sargent:

In the upcoming race for the senate seat held currently by Senator E.M. Kennedy in the state of Massachusetts, it would be appropriate to give your full hearted support to the best man of Manchester, attorney [redacted]

b6
b7c

It is a real shame to see the voters of Massachusetts so polarized to the "Kennedy-Klan" over the period of several years, and with just an extra effort from certain individuals in the state it can be a "Republican" win.

Indeed my purpose in writing to you is to remind you that the enclosed letter of information, addressed to the President R.M. Nixon is for informational purpose in order to bring you up to date quickly on a matter that is pertinent, to you as Governor of Massachusetts.

First of all, one must realize that the current attorney-general Robert Quinn has not given the fair share of justice to the folks who are the voters in Massachusetts. The acts of compromise have led me to think that the Republicans of Massachusetts need a change for the better immediately.

Again I feel its my duty to inform you in order to get the best man up there in office to serve the voters of Massachusetts because Senator E.M. Kennedy has failed to keep the responsibility to this native born constituent on matters of justice to all concerned individuals. Its a shame to think that the state of Massachusetts has voted for a so-called man that does not have the courage to prosecute "military-establishment" personnel for the death of President J.F. Kennedy. Failing that added his negligent attitude that brought about the death of his other brother, Sen. R.F. Kennedy. Whats really funny, is the fact he was just brought up to date by "brain-analysts" connected to the case for over twenty years. The shock sent him over for a trip into Europe to recuperate.

Well you have your challenge, to bring about a "My-Lai" investigation to the unfinished business of metering out justice, or do you prefer to let matters ride such as the last Kennedy decided, that will be your choice to make as a representative of the voters of Massachusetts.

Its been my experience to notice that Senator E.M. Kennedy has had lots of co-operation to single me out to his friends from the east coast while I walk up or down "Broadway in Portland, Oregon". Be sure you share this sheet of information with the 5,000 attorneys in greater Boston so you can receive the efforts needed to elect attorney [redacted] for the senate seat.

Meanwhile lets hear from you on the [redacted] r. Thank you and [redacted] - Luck always.

Dear Dr. [redacted]:

I feel its my responsibility, as a native from Massachusetts, to invite you to visit the city of New Bedford, where they grow and teach one to become genius.

You will find it just as rewarding as taking a leisurely paced trip through the Mohawk Trail in Massachusetts. With a suggestion and recommendation to take in the peak turns of each season and thoroughly enjoy its changing panorama of environment. You owe it to yourself to get away from your world for a while, and enjoy the life around you. Be my guest, and take a friend along.

It would be appropriate to stop off at 235 N. Front Street and enquire with the folks who teach the youngsters the best of all worlds, including genius.

Needless to say, my prime purpose in writing to you, is to ask you to defeat arrogance through the ballot box in the upcoming elections throughout Massachusetts, and update your friends.

Since the tragic failure to assist his next door neighbor has been the "example" of the last "Kennedy", that I want to impress upon you of the urgency in the matter of his negligence that has also taken the life of his other brother, Senator R.F. Kennedy. Senatorial immunity has given him an enormous latitude against his native constituents, with the result that he has not been interested in bringing about prosecution against those responsible for the interference that led to the death of the former President John F. Kennedy. He lacks the courage to be a man, muchless show the interest of justice in the matter to his constituents and one who had the Kennedys foremost in mind. The governmental analysts who are honest, will readily admit, the "Kennedy-family" had the services of this genius, free, with no strings attached. Xerox samples have a way of keeping politicians honest, as the enclosed information will bear me out.

Accepting his blatant performance as a public servant of such responsibility, would indeed be a crime to continue without being informed, and a recommendation of his dismissal from office. Padlocking the doors to the citadels of prayer, as well for colleges too, is completely wrong from any public servant across this land, muchless from Senator E.M. Kennedy.

Again its my hope to know you did get with the program, with a special request to share all contained information herein with the best throughout Massachusetts, particularly at voting time. For better mental health, vote, but vote for the G-O-P party and Attorney [redacted], a better man for Massachusetts and the country. Let no Kennedy denounce, distort, discredit, or omit this as news, ever.

In closing, may I wish you well and have a nice day always.

Dear Sir:

In the interest of the profession, I Mr. [redacted] hereby resolves to bring the enclosed information to the attention of your concern and to make this a real part of the relative matter of the assassination of our former President John F. Kennedy, including Senator Robert F. Kennedy, and Senator Edward Moore Kennedy's responsibility in the matter plus Chappaquiddick.

b6
b7c

The current vicious smearing campaign by the Senator Edward M. Kennedy has been instituted by his office and the "senatorial-immunity" of his has kept all of the enclosed information with a strong-lid upon all the facts. However, he did feel it was perfectly alright to take advantage and use the information for personal gain and profit and to share as he felt with others in a commercial way, without my authorization. The result of his negligence in the matter brought about the death of his brother Senator Robert F. Kennedy which makes for the funniest story of the year, any year. Just be sure that you are up with the relative combined factors as they are applied in this particular case. It does stem from my earliest day of thinking to save the life of the President some day. Other youngsters born in the city of New Bedford of Massachusetts think in terms of wanting to become spelling-bee champs, and still others want to become doctors.

Meanwhile, may I invite you and your staff to take in the local environment at the "peaks" of each season, and be sure you let no Kennedy push you around from your opportunity to investigate the special interesting points that are offered in that environment. Stop by at 235 N. Front Street for your free-lessons to genius, and tell them I sent you. You can further evaluate this with US-Government analytical service entrance tests taken back in 1940. Bear in mind that they were told to stay off my back after they found my tests of potential genius, and I verified them with my retort in that I knew that from Jr. High School days from New Bedford in Massachusetts, and that I didn't need their help for my psyche is healthy and I want to stay that way. Needless to say, everything was fine until I joined the USAF after the war and my stint in the US Army. The USAF-OSI owned-me in that they could play their filthy games of smearing one who was striving to make the best of USAF promotions offered. The President of the United States does not have a brave brother in Senator Edward Moore Kennedy because he could have cared less about the opportunity after he investigated and decided to "reclassify" this genius for purposes of political-expediency or self-centered interests with his "corruption" of office. Chappaquiddick brought proof to such.

At any rate, the enclosed xerox copies will bear my efforts to those interested in following up any program in the interests of the profession and medical history. In addition the "Kennedy-Scandal" should be exposed to the public of the "omitted-news" that is certainly within the rules and regulations of the free press, that did get "suppressed" in this case and story of the century.

Should there be any discrepancy whatever, then please bring it to my immediate attention, even after mailing the Senator Edward Moore Kennedy a certified set of the enclosed copies to him at his Washington D.C. office.

For another opportunity and a quick point of references with a Professor [redacted] who is currently teaching the subject plus the "combination-of" and with the extra-sensory-perception that certainly makes the world a very different place indeed. One can get in touch with her at her local address of the UCLA campus nearby, or at her residence of [redacted] of the Beverly-Hills address. She does have a Ph.D and is a real "gold-plater" in this particular subject and case. Be my guest and give her a ring on the telephone. I know her not, but have taken the time to read about her in a copy or two of a nationwide magazine given to such subjects related to psychology.

In addition to Senator Edward Moore Kennedy's efforts to subordinate science to ideology that it would be appropriate at this moment to remind you that his brand of liberalism has stunted our thinking in terms of "his Secrecy by Government" ideals. One has to remind ones-self of the factors that he deliberately "padlocked" the church and college doors in throughout the nation. His corrupt friends in the "Harvard University Medical School made sure of that, I'm sure. Their method in protecting their "heavy-donating" family for Harvard's coffers will attest to that any day of the week. They have been known to have "stretched" medical standards to meet the obligations of such "donaters" trying to coverup for their "family-genetic-deficiency" by "buying-out" their opposition in such detailed instances. Such corrupt practices have certainly kept them in office for a long period of time, and their image like that of a shining star off Madison Avenue in New York.

You have the interesting challenge to sketch me the seances of a Lee Harvey Oswald when you are in the city of New Bedford in the state of Massachusetts. The other, is that you are also offered to "sketch" me the seances of "Sirhan B. Sirhan", muchless that of the ill fated accident of the drowning of "Mary Jo Konechne" of which no one in the country thinks in terms that he deliberately left the young woman drown. He came back to a standing ovation of the members-of the Senate and the "house".

Oh! All the "seances" do occur before time and in ample time to change the course of history, as it applied to this case. The natural ability of mine continues to this day, and again it does apply to such matters as "murder" without any flaw in picking the accurate name of the "assailant" or assassin, be it after their act. That is the reason the "corrupt" individuals in Harvard do not want this exposed, but they did take the time to "reclassify" this as something of another color. Its best you and your staff informs them of such today, not tomorrow. His Irish tricks are like that of the Russians of today, if thats of any help to show you some factors involved in the matter here.

Meanwhile, "never take a back-seat to a Kennedy, ever".

Furthermore, I'll be glad to read this before the Senate anyday.

Again it has been my personal experience to know for a fact that Senator Edward Moore Kennedy is a "liar" in this matter and has purposely and with deliberate cause made this into an act of censorship in his behalf. He also took it upon himself to make profit from all of the submitted information long before I had would suspect he would use, for such a purpose.

May you have my full authorization to share the enclosed information with the best of California's neurologists, psychiatrists, psychologists and parapsychologists. Do it today and not tomorrow, for its been "omitted-news" long enough. Contact all your attorneys.

The "approved" games of blacklisting and blackballing such people after "US-Government-analytical-tests" should prove to you and all of your staff of just what does take place with the "approved" Pentagon games for corrupt senators in office "coverupping" for their filthy and bad deeds and then telling the "press" and the rest of the magazine media to "go fly a kite" in this matter, which is like that of his thinking of his constituents. Politicians make for the most at your expense and mine, never their own.

In closing, may I say "thank you" for your kind and devoted attention on the matter and with the hopes of hearing from you real soon.

Dear Dr. [redacted]:

It was rather interesting to hear a comment or two over the radio news reports of late and your struggle with the corrupted and crooked politician named, Senator Edward Moore Kennedy of Massachusetts, that it motivated me to write you.

It may interest you to know that the "Kennedy" family had the services of this genius, born and destined to save the "President" and it all back-fired all because the "US Governmental analysts" had their Pentagon approved program to stay on my back for a free-ride, simply because my service entrance examination tests proved to them that I was potential genius. Well needless to say, I knew that long back when I took tests in the Normandin Jr. High School in New Bedford, Massachusetts. And the teachers so inferred my folks, but those days, no one (poor) in Massachusetts could receive free scholarships to continue on to college, so only the fourteen years of free schooling was all approved during those days within Massachusetts.

Not to place you on the spot upon the knowledge of genius combined Extra-Sensory-Perception in the world of "parapsychology" and its power upon the normal world around us, but my intent is to bring you abreast of its connection to the truthful story and facts that took place accurately. Lets leave "politics" out.

Its as simply as the fact that I was born in the city of New Bedford in Massachusetts on [redacted] and grew up within the local environment through the years of nineteen. Then departing and finally beating the draft with my volunteering into the 27th Division at the Jamaica Armory in New York's Long Island in 1940.

So after taking entrance service tests, the people involved told me that I was potential genius, and I told them I knew that long back and didn't want their company upon my back following me around and making me mentally sick. The war years did leave me alone and then I signed into the USAF, where the "US-Governmental analysts" evidently received approved program to follow me around like I stole a million dollars. And to the point that I purposely did drop a USAF-Aircraft C-124 type upon an engineers head, killing him outright and received an "honorable discharge for that. The USAF agents of the OSI had too many clumsy agents exercising their discretion upon my healthy psyche and to this day the worse that did happened was that they purposely did "rape my mind" at the terrific cost of the former President John F. Kennedy and yet. Senator Edward Moore Kennedy did not have the courage to prosecute for their deliberate interference that led to the death of the President. Well, with all of the resources of the US-Government at his disposal, his negligence and decision thought of me as a charlatan with resulting death of the Senator Robert F. Kennedy as an additional one to his credit. Furthermore, the "US Governmental analysts" had brought him up to date on the matter as it applied to the "Presidential-Assassination" and the offspring of its services to all concerned in the matter and subject.

Needless to say, it sent him on to a vacation for recuperation, and the US-Governmental analysts did inform him the "additional" death could have been averted, but that was his personal matter.

At any rate, as you have perhaps taken the time to read some of my efforts to bring this matter up before the proper authorities within the enclosed "xerox" copies of information, that seemingly it is our responsibility to bring this before the public and expose it into the front pages of every newspaper across the land today and not tomorrow. Please take note of the "starter" letter that I sent to Senator E.M. Kennedy in my own handwriting, then the second one to Attorney [redacted] at his old address.

b7c

The others enclosed are only a small sample of what I have mailed out to various Senators within the current Senate seating in Washington, D.C. And yet, to this day he is still the "king" of censorship in Washington, D.C., plus Massachusetts.

Naturally I need your help and the entire organization of the membership of the American Medical Association today. To continue to put up with his lying to the public and making this "as-omitted-news" is something to think about, and above all please share this with everyone concerned in the world of "parapsychologists" at their best, with over twenty years of close surveillance upon me. Lets get with the program today, and force this into the face of Senator Edward Moore Kennedy today. Its bad enough to know he purposely "padlocked all the doors to the citadels of prayer, but he also padlocked the doors to all the colleges". The crooked politician that he is, has not stop my effort to expose him at my level of my budget to bring this up before everyone concerned. But the bottomless barrel of monies from the combined friends within the bureaucracies and the US-Governmental agencies is hard to go pressing. They certainly have "supressed the enclosed facts for many years", with lots of extra-politicians to distort and discredit, and play down bad negligence he did show in the matter.

So here in is your "new" challenge, along with the facts that you are to invite him to "sketch" the seances of "Lee Harvey Oswald" within the city of New Bedford in Massachusetts today. I'm sure the "Kennedy" will not invite you to visit New Bedford, so be my guest and do visit at the peaks of each season. Furthermore, stop at 235 N. Front Street and ask them to give you your free lessons towards genius.

Some youngsters within New Bedford and its environment, do think of doing something decent in life, but the "Pentagon" people do have other plans for "poor" guys like me. I just regret that the Senator E.M. Kennedy was such a "bum", otherwise I would have saved the life of the other, Senator Robert F. Kennedy. But at any rate, the US-Governmental analysts do know "King-Edward" did goof and his negligence did shine through, thoroughly.

Please note the enclosed copies as I have mailed out over the many years. This is worst than the "Top-Secret" papers of the Pentagon and the farce of the "classification-program", which looks like Senatorial immunity is hiding Senator E.M. Kennedy in the case.

The "program of dirty labels" I have gone through, is but a small price to pay for the million dollar story the Senator from Massachusetts deliberately suppressed from the public as news is one more reason of this effort in writing to you and the other is to make sure that people like you will be aware that there is an "untapped" and new world around you.

The embarrassing part of the "scuttled-efforts" of Senator E.M. Kennedy in this case and matter, is one additional part that has eluded most of the people. And yet there is at least one million who do know about this story as truthful as I am writing it to you, today. So set it "exposed" as soon as possible, today.

It is indeed something to think about the facts that he also did make profit and gain from the information over the years, but in addition continues to overlook this letter of information, playing the "game" of secrecy, with senatorial-immunity.

Again, may I remind you, never take a back-seat to a Kennedy, ever.

Again, you would not have known that the "Kennedys" had the services of a genius destined to save the former President J.F. Kennedy. And the additional factor of the "crooked" Senator E.M. Kennedy to take it upon himself to make profit of the death and story of Senator Robert F. Kennedy's life, whereas he could have saved such. How does grab you in the old "slang" and terminology?????

Political-paranoia, is the usual price all politicians of such repute, must pay someday. Its other matter, when his own mother makes a nice gesture to establish the "Bronx-Mental-Retardation-Center" with a donation of some $10,000,000.00. Some day the facts will bear out their mental-deficiency within their family, its been a terrific price to pay already, for the comfortable glow of companionable humanity. Paranoid behavior in government leaders are subject to a great deal of scrutiny and some are eluded because of corruption among their kind. Contact Mr. [redacted], AKA, Wash, DC. .

b7C

I'm inclined to think that my story should be worth a million dollars even to McCalls, Corporation, or the Bantam Books of New York.

Meanwhile, may this find you in the best of health, and with the hopes of hearing from you. Let no one in the service of the government tell you a different story, while I am still trying to get them onto the carpet before any Federal Judge in the land.

And finally, may I extend the invitation for all of your staff and the "American Medical Association" to visit the city of New Bedford in Massachusetts, where they grow and teach one to become genius. With all that interference from the "Kennedy" he still thinks getting me "reclassified" has saved the day for him.

Its better to inform him, Genius remains Geni's Always Whose Money Built Kopechne House?

VERA GLASER and MALVINA STEPHENSON

WASHINGTON.

THE PARENTS OF MARY JO KOPECHNE, who drowned in Sen. Edward Kennedy's car three years ago, will soon adopt a new, affluent life style.

Still not entirely recovered from their tragic loss, Joseph and Gwen Kopechne are pulling up stakes in the working class suburb of Berkeley Heights, New Jersey, where they have lived for 25 years.

They will leave their modest rented apartment and move into a custom-built $75,000 rambler in a secluded area of the Pocono mountains an hour's drive from Mary Jo's grave in Larksville, Pa.

The Kopechnes

The Kopechnes' new financial security has revived curiosity about how much money they received as a result of their daughter's death. Observers have noted from the beginning that the bereaved parents have carefully refrained from criticizing Kennedy.

The new home, now nearly complete, is reached through winding private roads. It dominates a rise at a 1,900-foot elevation about 40 miles from Wilkes-Barre.

In the surrounding low-income mining communities, where the Kopechnes have roots and numerous relatives, talk is buzzing that the home "was built with Kennedy money."

The sum awarded the Kopechnes under the senator's automobile liability insurance, after the judge at the inquest found him guilty of "falshood" and "negligence," has been a closely guarded secret.

If an additional cash settlement were made, the parties involved have kept mum about that, too.

AT THE CAPITAL, SEN. KENNEDY said he is "aware" of the settlement, but suggested the figure could come from the Kopechnes' attorney in Wilkes-Barre.

"That was a long time ago. I am not familiar in detail with their plans," Kennedy said.

But Joseph Flanagan, the attorney, angrily refused to discuss the settlement or the house.

In the summer and fall of 1969, when Mary Jo's death dominated the headlines, Kopechne retained a battery of top-notch legal talent, despite his limited means.

Three attorneys from the well-known firm of Flanagan and Doran represented him at the hearing to block an autopsy on his daughter's body.

Sources in the area report the house is providing a new interest for Mrs. Kopechne, whose "nerves are shot." Kopechne reportedly is "down in the dumps at times."

In about a year he plans to retire from his job, selling insurance. Until then he and his wife will spend weekends in the new home.

The brick-and-siding residence is on 1/4 wooded acres. It boasts a breakfast room with fireplace, three bedrooms, two baths, a two-car garage, and glass-walled rear decks overlooking a splendid view.

After the tragedy the Kopechnes dropped out of sight. In the last year they have taken an unlisted telephone number.

Their new home was discovered by these reporters during an inspection of properties in the scenic Poconos, where the Kopechne's builder Isaac B. Miller owns 700 acres. He suggested a look at a house he had under construction and identified the owner.

"I think he got his insurance money for his daughter," Miller said, adding that Kopechne's Wilkes-Barre lawyer also "checked me out."

Family sources confirmed the facts about the house and the insurance settlement, though not the amount.

THE KENNEDYS

End of the Affair

As untidily and unsatisfactorily as it began, the legal inquiry into the incident at Chappaquiddick came to an abrupt end last week. After a few hours of fruitless probing, a grand jury appointed to investigate the death last July of Mary Jo Kopechne adjourned in frustration without clarifying any of the mystery that still surrounds her death.

The grand jury, sitting in Edgartown, Mass., began its work with high hopes. Foreman Leslie Leland, a Vineyard Haven druggist, pledged a complete and independent investigation; many jurors were apparently in an indicting mood. Their ambitions were quickly dashed by State Superior Court Justice Wilfred Paquet, 67, a no-nonsense jurist with a reputation for running a tight courtroom. Somewhat Churchillian of mien and manner, Paquet swore the jurors to secrecy, warning them that their lips were "sealed not for a month, not for a year, but forever." He also narrowed the scope of their investigation by informing them that they could consider only those matters brought to their attention by the superior court, the district attorney or their own personal knowledge.

Paquet's charge left the grand jury with few options. Only three charges were possible against Senator Edward Kennedy: manslaughter, perjury or "driving to endanger," a traffic offense that is generally combined with other charges, notably drunken driving. Citing a ruling by the state's Supreme Judicial Court, the judge denied the jurors' request for a look at the transcript of the January inquest into the accident. District Attorney Edmund Dinis, who had access to both the transcript and the report on the proceedings by Presiding Justice James Boyle, told the jurors there was not enough evidence to indict Kennedy on any of the charges. The jurors themselves made no move to call anyone involved in the events surrounding the accident; four new witnesses, who testified for less than 20 minutes in all, provided nothing useful in the way of evidence.

Case Closed. With that, the grand jury gave up. Accompanied by a sheriff in formal dress, the ten men and ten women assembled glumly before Judge Paquet in Martha's Vineyard's 112-year-old courthouse. The judge asked Foreman Leland if the jury had any presentments to make. "I have nothing to present," said Leland quietly. "Not you," snapped Paquet. "Does the grand jury have anything to present?" Startled, Leland said that the answer for the grand jury was the same. His reply came as a relief to Dinis, who has become an increasingly reluctant participant in the drama involving Massachusetts' most powerful political family. "The case is closed," he said.

The doubts remain. Several grand jurors believed that Kennedy should have been brought before a court to answer for events that they still find inadequately explained. Many were disappointed at their inability to return an indictment against him. "Most of us felt Kennedy was morally responsible for the death of that girl," said one woman juror, ignoring Paquet's warning about sealed lips. Said a male juror: "I don't believe this will ever be resolved as far as some people are concerned."

JUSTICE PAQUET

The jury had nothing to present.

The case is resolved, however, as far as the courts are concerned. Dinis' statement that no further action is planned clears the way for the release of the inquest transcript and Justice Boyle's report. All that stood in the way of the release was resolution of the kind of dispute that typifies courthouse politics in Massachusetts. Freelance Court Stenographer Sidney Lipman, following a well-established Bay State practice, made arrangements to offer the 764-page transcript for sale at $1.05 a page, or $802.20 a copy. He has sued to halt its publication by the court at the bargain-basement price of $75 a copy. Rejecting his suit, the state has gone ahead with its plans to release the inquest documents this week. Few expect the transcript to produce any surprises or further clues to what really happened at and after the tragic party for the boiler-room girls.

Chappaquiddick Swimmer And Pals

Using Gray To Get At Mr. Nixon

IT'S A SIGHT to sadden Americans — the director designate of the Federal Bureau of Investigation wasting days answering questions in a senatorial inquisition involving the bogus issue of executive privilege.

A gaggle of liberal senators, including the sly Chappaquiddick swimmer Edward M. Kennedy, have put a price tag on the confirmation of L. Patrick Gray 3rd as permanent FBI chief.

They'll say yes to Gray only if President Nixon violates his stated principles and lets White House lawyer John W. Dean 3rd answer a Senate Judiciary Committee subpoena.

MR. NIXON takes the position that the president must be free to draw on the advice of trusted aides who cannot then be subject to the untender mercies of partisan politicians armed with subpoenas.

Gray is the chief executive and dry up his sources of counsel.

But Sen. Kennedy has discovered a new platform and he's using it for all it's worth to cast aspersions on the President by suggesting something is being hidden from public view.

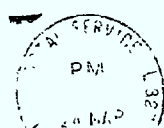

TRYING TO FORCE Dean to testify against his own wishes and the convictions of the President should be seen for what it is, a shabby partisan political trick.

The FBI is an investigative arm of the government headed by the President, and it would be strange indeed if the President didn't have full access to FBI reports.

Kennedy and his cohorts are saying in effect that there's something wrong when an employee, namely Patrick Gray, turns over to his boss, namely Richard Nixon, the facts of an investigation.

Nonsense. As far as we're concerned the Watergate case has been more effectively cleared up than the saga of Chappaquiddick.

You and I attended a conference with the Attorney General in his office from 6:00 p.m. until 7:35 p.m. on June 19, 1973. During the discussion, I advised the Attorney General of our concern regarding disclosure of the FBI Manual of Instructions to anyone outside the FBI.

The Attorney General indicated he was willing to decline to furnish the manuals to Senator Kennedy and he may do so in person rather than by letter. The Attorney General indicated he believed the need to consider the question of the establishment of Congressional oversight committees concerning the FBI provides a reasonable basis for denial of FBI manuals pending resolution of that larger issue.

As a reminder, I note that a set of our manuals, plus prior versions of Section 87 of the manual, are still in the custody of Assistant Attorney General Dixon.

Nothing further appears to be necessary at this time pending the final action of the Attorney General concerning response to Senator Kennedy.

At 10:30 a.m. on June 19, 1973, Mr. [] of the Intelligence Division, and I attended a conference at the request of Assistant Attorney General Dixon concerning the matter of disclosure of the FBI Manual of Instructions to Senator Kennedy. Also attending the conference were Mary Lawton, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Office of Legal Counsel, and John Gallinger and Douglas Marvin, attorneys in the Office of Legal Counsel.

Mr. Dixon discussed the various alternative responses that might be given to Senator Kennedy and his suggestions ranged from general public disclosure of the manuals to denial of disclosure entirely. The manuals had been reviewed by Mr. Dixon's assistants who were attending the meeting and they offered the observations that the innocuous material in the manuals had scattered throughout references to sensitive material therefore full disclosure of the manuals could be detrimental to the FBI. Mr. Dixon indicated he was still looking for a means of resolving this matter.

I suggested to Mr. Dixon that the Attorney General might respond to Senator Kennedy in writing with an offer to allow the Senator to review pertinent portions of the manual under a written understanding that such review would not result in public disclosure of the material. I suggested that this offer, while not necessarily binding on the Senator, could provide an appropriate response by the Attorney General and the establishment of conditions guaranteeing security of the material would appear to be reasonable because of the need to avoid public disclosure of certain portions of the manuals. Mr. Dixon said he agreed that such

On June 8, 1973, Assistant Attorney General Robert Dixon, Office of Legal Counsel, advised me that the Attorney General testified on June 5, 1973, before the Senate Committee on the Judiciary, Subcommittee on Criminal Laws and Procedures, concerning the "Law Enforcement Revenue Sharing Act of 1973." Senator Kennedy asked the Attorney General for access to the FBI's Manual of Instructions. The Attorney General answered in substance that he did not feel there would be any great problem in making such material available to Senator Kennedy subject to appropriate limitations as to further use of the material. The Attorney General indicated to Senator Kennedy that in his opinion the only basis for denying access to the Manual of Instructions would be claim of executive privilege which he felt would not be warranted in this case.

The Attorney General has a conference each morning at 9:00 a. m. with Assistant Attorney General Dixon and at the conference immediately following his testimony, the Attorney General asked Mr. Dixon to obtain the Bureau's views concerning disclosure of the manual. Mr. Dixon said there is a great deal of urgency in this request as he must furnish a response to the Attorney General as soon as possible. Mr. Dixon advised that he would like to have the opportunity to review the manuals himself and to have them reviewed by his two Deputy Assistants, Leon Ulman, and Mary C. Lawton.

I discussed this matter with Mr. Felt and pursuant to his authorization I met at 3:30 p. m. on June 8, 1973, with Assistant Attorney General Dixon, Sol Lindenbaum, Executive Assistant to the Attorney General, and Douglas R. Marvin, an attorney employed in the Office of

Re: Request for Disclosure of Legal Counsel in the Department. At that conference I advised Mr. Dixon and Mr. Lindenbaum of the concern the FBI has regarding any access to the Manual of Instructions by persons outside the FBI. I pointed out that the manuals contain material of a highly sensitive nature which, if made accessible to persons outside the FBI could result in a detriment to FBI operations. I pointed out to Mr. Dixon and Mr. Lindenbaum that while we had no reservations about the personal integrity of officials in the Department, our concern was based on the principle that any disclosure outside the FBI increased the possibility of inadvertent or unauthorized release of the material.

Mr. Dixon then asked me specifically whether I would be willing to authorize the Assistant Attorney General or the Attorney General to review the manuals and I advised him that if we were directed by the Attorney General to produce the manuals we would do so, but that in order of preference we would prefer: first, no disclosure outside the FBI, and if that were not possible, we would prefer disclosure only in the presence of an FBI representative.

Mr. Dixon said that he intended to agree with my observation and that if he were to review FBI manuals he would like to have an FBI representative present who could certify that he did not remove or copy any material from the manuals.

Mr. Lindenbaum advised that he better understood the position of the FBI, but that he thought it would be essential for a persuasive case to be made to the Attorney General in order to convince him that the manuals should not be disclosed. At that point, Mr. Dixon specifically requested a summary statement of examples of materials contained in the manuals that should not be disclosed because of the harm that such disclosure would cause. He requested this statement be furnished him before Monday morning, June 11, 1973. Mr. Dixon said that he and Mr. Lindenbaum would confer with the Attorney General at 9:00 a.m. on June 11, 1973, and would discuss this matter in detail. He said that if it was necessary following that discussion, a conference would be held on Tuesday, June 12, 1973, at which time FBI representatives would be invited to appear and discuss this matter further.

Re: Request for Disclosure of

Senator Edward M. Kennedy

On my return, I advised Mr. Felt of the results of the conference and he instructed that I begin immediately the preparation of an appropriate statement of examples in response to Mr. Dixon's request. I then advised Inspector Bassett of the results of the conference.

On the evening of June 8, 1973, I reviewed the four volumes of the Manual of Instructions and selected two or three items from each manual, the disclosure of which could be harmful to FBI operations. I described the items in general terms so as to indicate their scope, but not their specific contents. Attached is a statement listing the items.

At 7:54 p.m., June 8, 1973, I telephonically read the attached statement to Mr. Felt. He approved and authorized me to deliver the statement at once to Mr. Dixon. Delivered by SA 6/11/73.

Re memorandum of 10/10/73 from Mr. Campbell to Mr. Callahan concerning the briefing of certain Members of Congress and their staff members on NCIC/CCH operations on 10/25/73.

As you are aware, responses to the invitations extended are being received and a number of Congressmen and Senators are designating their aides to be present for the briefing. Today, 10/19/73, SA [redacted], Congressional Services Office, received a call from [redacted] a legislative aide to Senator Edward M. Kennedy (D-Mass.) and who works for Senator Kennedy on the Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure, Committee on the Judiciary, which is chaired by Senator Kennedy. [redacted] stated he had learned of the NCIC/CCH briefing on 10/25/73 from other congressional aides and wondered if it would be possible for an invitation to be extended to him as a representative of the Subcommittee chaired by Senator Kennedy. SA [redacted] advised that he felt certain that this could be arranged, and he explained to [redacted] that in respect to the Judiciary Committee, members of the Subcommittee on FBI Oversight had been invited along with Senators Tunney and Mathias who have expressed particular interest in the NCIC/CCH program. It was pointed out four other Senators on the Judiciary Committee in addition to Senator Kennedy had not been extended invitations inasmuch as a number of invitations were also sent to other Senators and House Members because of their committee assignments and/or interest in NCIC/CCH.

[redacted] was informed that the FBI would, of course, be most pleased to have him present at the briefing on 10/25/73. [redacted] said he could understand the FBI's inability to accommodate all who might like to attend the briefing and why all the Senators and Congressmen could not be invited. He was most appreciative when told that we would be pleased to have him attend and that we would be expecting him at 10 a.m., Room 3119, FBI Identification Building, Second and D Streets, Southwest, Washington, D. C., 10/25/73. Computer Systems Division has been advised of this matter and will be expecting [redacted]

Chief Clarence M. Kelley
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Chief Kelley:

Edward M. Kennedy

I have some important information concerning Edward Kennedy at Chappaquiddick, and consider it my duty to report it to you.

Up until now, all the investigation has been based on an entirely false premise, which is that Kennedy was the driver of the car when it went off the bridge. This is absolutely not true! Here are the facts: The pair were seen by deputy Christopher Look (now Sheriff Look) an hour and a half after Kennedy stated the car was in the water. When the two saw the law-man they sped off into the night. Then Kennedy got out and hid in the bushes, telling the girl to drive around and "lose" the deputy, returning for him later on.

Please picture this: The girl is a foot shorter than Kennedy. She cannot reach the foot brake, nor can she see over the dashboard. In addition, she does not know the territory, and she is very badly frightened. Need I say more?

When she didn't return, Kennedy ran back to the cottage to get his cousin and his friend. The three of them drove around the island for an hour or so, trying to find her. Then they gave it up, and the next morning they had to be told that the car and body had been found in Poncha Pond.

I am enclosing a copy of the best book I have found on this subject. As you read "The Bridge at Chappaquiddick" you will see how every single detail falls into place. The book, however, does not include a report on the inquest. I understand that such report contains over seven hundred pages of lies and evasions!

Now what, we may ask, motivates a U. S. senator to involve himself in such a tangled web of deceit. The answer probably is that he thought it would be less damaging to his political career to be known as a reckless driver (which he always has been) than to be exposed as a U. S. senator, riding around at night with an unmarried girl, while his pregnant wife sits at home.

So what do we have here? We have a young, fair-haired, blue-eyed corpse! We have Kennedy committing perjury, and forcing others to do so. We have the corruption of the entire Supreme Court of Massachusetts. We have the defrauding of whatever insurance company paid up in the belief that Kennedy was the driver of the car. In addition, we have Democratic senators not only shielding this deceitful man, but having the unmitigated gall to offer him to the public as a candidate for '76.

If you wish further information, it will be very easy to reach me at this small hotel where I, a retired person, have been living for the past nine years.

Respectfully yours,

SUBJECT: S. 2543; H. R. 12471;

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION LEGISLATION

EDWARD M. KENNEDY

The Senate yesterday (5-30-74) adopted two amendments to captioned bill which greatly will adversely affect our operations and in all probability will insure this legislation will be vetoed.

The first amendment was offered by Senator Edmund Muskie (D-Maine) and would require the courts to examine classified material in camera to determine if its classification was proper and the document should be withheld from disclosure. The White House and the Department of Justice in addition to CIA made an all out effort to defeat this amendment. Two White House legislative representatives were working personally on the Hill against this amendment while the Department had three of its representatives there, including Assistant Attorney General Vince Rakestraw, Office of Legislative Affairs. A letter from the Attorney General to Senator Roman Hruska in opposition to the amendment was circulated to every Member of the Senate. In spite of this effort the amendment was adopted by vote of 53 to 29.

The second amendment was offered by Senator Philip Hart (D-Mich.). This amendment would change and drastically weaken exemption number 7 of the Freedom of Information Act concerning investigatory files. The wording of this amendment follows.

"Investigatory records compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such records would (A) interfere with enforcement proceedings, (B) deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, or constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, (C) disclose the identity of an informer, or (D) disclose investigative techniques and procedures."

J. J. McDermott to Mr. Jenkins Memo
RE: S. 2543; H. R. 12471

We learned that this amendment was to be offered shortly before noon on 5-29-74 when Hart's staff first contacted other staff representatives seeking support. Efforts were made to contact Hart's staff representative but he did not return our calls nor did he return the call made to him by Rakestraw. Material prepared by Congressional Services Office and the Freedom of Information Unit in opposition to this amendment was furnished to more than 20 Members of the Senate and personal contacts were made with numerous Members and staff personnel seeking support of our position of opposition to this amendment. Two attempts were made on the morning of 5-30-74 by Inspector Bowers to talk with Senator Hart about the amendment but efforts to reach him were not successful. This amendment was adopted by vote of 51 to 33.

Shortly after this amendment was adopted Burt Wides, Legislative Assistant to Senator Hart who had not returned the earlier calls made to him, contacted Bowers at the Capitol. Some of the extreme difficult problems which this amendment will cause for Federal law enforcement agencies were pointed out to him, and he said he had not realized the amendment would have such an impact. He was told of the efforts made to contact both him and his Senator, and he claimed he had not received any messages concerning our calls. He then offered to possibly work with us in an effort to lessen the impact of this amendment when the legislation goes to conference.

Following action on the legislation, a discussion was had with Rakestraw, Tom Korologos and Pat O'Donnell of the White House staff. Both Korologos and O'Donnell stated they feel certain the adoption of these two amendments will insure a Presidential veto, and they pointed out the fact there were 33 votes against the Hart amendment indicates a veto can be sustained in the Senate. Four Members of the Senate who undoubtedly would have voted against the Hart amendment were absent on the 30th. It was the consensus of Korologos, Rakestraw, and O'Donnell that no serious efforts should be made to "clean up" this legislation in conference since both the Senate and House versions of this legislation contain many undesirable features. The initial conclusion is to delay final enactment and then recommend Presidential veto.

Rakestraw commented after the passage of this legislation that he realized now it had been a bad mistake to attempt to negotiate with Senator Kennedy and his staff concerning problems in this legislation. It was apparent Kennedy was not sincere in the compromise he had agreed to with the Departmental representatives since he, as floor leader of the bill, strongly endorsed both the Muskie and Hart amendments when they were offered on the Senate floor, thus abandoning his prior commitment to support the compromise version which had been worked out in Committee.

Honorable James O. Eastland
United States Senate
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator Eastland:

Recently, as a result of an interview I had with a representative of a national television network, I have discovered that an answer I gave to a question posed by Senator Edward Kennedy during my confirmation hearings was not entirely accurate.

The exchange in question appears on page 44 of the printed hearings. The matter concerns the alleged misuse of information obtained by the Lenexa, Kansas, Police Department from the computer network being operated by the Kansas City Police Department while I was Chief of that Department.

I stated during the hearings that it had been discovered a Lenexa police officer apparently was making inquiries over the computer network for a rental agency and some businessmen, and that he had been reprimanded and the Lenexa Police Department advised any further such violations could mean its terminal would be taken away. I now find that statement, which was based on my recollection of information furnished to me in 1970 by a subordinate command officer in Kansas City, was not entirely accurate. I had been told a letter was being sent to the Lenexa Chief of Police concerning this matter. I have learned now the contact with the Lenexa Chief of Police

Apparently this conversation involved a discussion of the policy and code of ethics concerning the handling of information retained in the Kansas City computer system.

I regret having supplied inaccurate information to the Committee and request that this letter be made a part of Committee records.

Reference memorandum of 4-8-74 (copy attached) recommending that a letter be sent to Senator Eastland concerning the testimony the Director gave regarding the Lenexa, Kansas, Police Department and the fact that he has now discovered his statement during the confirmation hearings was not entirely accurate. It was also recommended a copy of the letter be delivered to Senator Kennedy who had asked the questions during the confirmation hearings regarding the Lenexa Police Department.

On 4-11-74 Inspector Bowers delivered the letter to Senator Eastland. The Senator read the letter and said he saw no reason for concern. He said he would hold the letter but he personally felt Mr. Kelley did not need to make any explanation. The Senator was asked for his opinion concerning the advisability of furnishing a copy of the letter to Senator Kennedy. He recommended against this, saying that he saw no need whatever to give Kennedy or his staff an open invitation to possibly create an issue. He said he would hold the letter from Mr. Kelley and if anything ever came up on the matter in his Committee he could quell it.

In view of Senator Eastland's recommendation, the copy of the letter intended for delivery to Senator Kennedy was not delivered and will not be delivered.

Smith to Wannall memo 10/1/74, captioned as above, reported that Mr. James Wilderotter, Associate Deputy Attorney General, would recontact the Attorney General concerning a proposal that we attempt once again to brief Senators Kennedy, Muskie and Ervin, without members of their staff present, concerning electronic surveillances. This briefing would be completely candid, with nothing held back if the Senators agree not to make a record of or publicize what they are told or shown.

On 10/3/74 Mr. Wilderotter advised that he has contacted the Attorney General, who has approved making another effort to conduct the briefing. He said also that Assistant Attorney General Vincent Rakestraw has obtained clearance for the briefing from Senator James O. Eastland. Wilderotter said that Rakestraw will now try to arrange the briefing by contacting the three Senators.

I suggested that Rakestraw contact the Senators personally rather than try to make arrangements through the Senators' staffs, since the staff members will obviously not feel inclined to be cooperative.

I told Wilderotter that I mentioned the matter of such a briefing to [redacted] one of Senator Kennedy's aides, during a luncheon conversation 10/2/74, and [redacted] voiced opinion that Kennedy would not be receptive to such a proposal. I told [redacted] that Kennedy should give a lot of thought to the matter since after such a complete, unvarnished briefing he would be in position to lay the wiretap myth to rest by appearing before the Senate and the American people and stating positively that he has personally examined what the FBI is doing with respect to electronic surveillance and he is satisfied that the FBI is still voiced doubt that Kennedy would agree to any such briefing. However, he was obviously aware that if he refuses such a briefing, the Attorney General and Director of the FBI can publicly note that Kennedy on the one hand insinuates impropriety by the Government in its wiretapping activity, but on the other hand rejects an opportunity to get all the facts first hand in a manner designed to both protect the national security interests and to dispell any doubts the Senators or the public might have regarding wiretapping by the FBI.

EDWARD M.

On November 13, 1974, I accompanied the Director to a conference with the Deputy Attorney General, and during the course of the discussion, the Deputy Attorney General received a call from D.C. ^{b6}
b7C
[redacted] of the White House staff, who advised that [redacted] who represents Senator Kennedy and who is working on the current FOIA legislation, had indicated an interest in reviewing FBI investigative files so that he could be aware of their nature when he was considering the need for changing the statutory language from "investigatory files" to "investigatory records." The Deputy Attorney General told [redacted] that the Director of the FBI was at the time in his office and he would inquire as to whether it would be possible for [redacted] to be granted access to FBI investigative files in order for him to become knowledgeable concerning them. The Deputy Attorney General then asked whether it would be possible to grant access to our files for the purpose indicated. I told him it would not be possible to grant access to our investigative files.

The Deputy Attorney General then asked whether it would be possible for us to find some alternative way of educating [redacted] as to the general nature of FBI files so that he would understand the problem we would face if the statutory language were changed requiring us to review line by line, each document in a Bureau file. I told the Deputy Attorney General that we would consider the request and if it was possible that we would make the necessary arrangements.

At a conference later in the day with Assistant Attorney General Scalia, Office of Legal Counsel, Mr. Scalia told me that the Deputy Attorney General had told him that arrangements were made by the FBI to permit Mr. [redacted] to have access to sample FBI investigative files. I told Mr. Scalia that this was incorrect. I had advised the Deputy Attorney General that we could not grant access to FBI files but that we were considering possible alternatives that would permit him to become aware of the problem that would be involved in reviewing individual records in our files. Scalia said that a meeting had been arranged for 10:00 a.m. on November 14, 1974, with [redacted] Assistant to White House Legal Counsel Buchen, representatives of the Department's Office of Legislative Affairs, and Mr. [redacted] for the purpose of discussing the FOIA amendments and providing [redacted] any information concerning the nature of FBI files. I told Mr. Scalia we were unaware of the time of the meeting until he had advised me of it and up until that time I had not been able to discuss the Deputy Attorney General's request with representatives of our FOIA Unit, but I would do so at once.

b7C

Upon my return to the Bureau, I contacted Supervisor James C. Farrington, Unit Chief of the FOIA Unit, and explained the problem to him. Mr. Farrington suggested that it would be possible for us to allow Sussman to review materials previously prepared for release in a Freedom of Information Act request involving Alger Hiss and organized crime figures. Mr. Farrington explained that these materials have been prepared for release and allowing Mr. [redacted] to review them would not compromise FBI files.

b6
b7C

At 3:55 p.m., November 13, 1974, I advised Assistant Attorney General Scalia that we had available sample material that had been prepared for release under the FOIA that would be representative of the problems of deleting identifying data and other material that would not be released under the Act and that such material could be made available at 10:00 a.m. on the morning of November 14, 1974 for the purposes indicated. He expressed appreciation for this and advised that he would make arrangements for the meeting in the Department, and he would advise us later of the time and place, but that it probably would be in Mr. Rakestraw's office.

At 4:15 p.m., Mr. Scalia's secretary called my secretary and advised that the above meeting now would be held at 9:15 a.m. in Room 5214.

RECOMMENDATION:

That Supervisor James C. Farrington, accompanied by Inspector David W. Bowers and Supervisor Richard C. Dennis, represent the Bureau at the meeting with Mr. Scalia and representatives of the White House and of the Department to discuss the pending FOIA legislation and to review with them the sample material described above.

Dear Mr. Kelley:

Thank you very much for your thoughtful letter. I mentioned your kind invitation to Teddy, and he was most enthusiastic about taking you up on it!

Perhaps I might call your office in June, when he's finished school, so we can schedule a lunch and a tour.

We both will look forward to it.

Mr. Robert A. Faille
Chief of Police
Plainville, Ma.

Dear Chief Faille:

In examining President Ford's proposed budget for fiscal year 1977, I have noted with concern his intention to eliminate federal funding of the Law Enforcement Education Program and to require State and local policy agencies to reimburse the F.B.I. for up to one-half of the cost of sending local police personnel to the F.B.I. National Training Academy.

I believe that such cuts, totalling over 45 million dollars, would prove most destructive to the future recruitment and training of qualified police personnel at the local level. I am sure you will agree that our local police departments are already operating on reduced budgets, and to require them to meet the additional costs of advanced education and police training will, I fear, result in the total elimination of such valuable programs.

The front line defense in the war on crime rests with the police officer patrolling our city streets. All police departments benefit from the opportunities afforded them by the L.E.E.P. and F.B.I. programs.

I will urge the Senate Appropriations Committee to eliminate this proposed budget cut from the President's budget and will, if necessary, pursue this matter on the Senate floor. I will continue to maintain close contact with the International and Massachusetts Chiefs of Police Associations as to this matter and will inform you of subsequent developments and in this effort, I hope I will have your suggestions and support.

Sincerely,

Dear Senator:

Richard Bates, our Agent in Charge in Boston, Massachusetts, has sent me a copy of your letter of March 15, 1976, to him.

I do appreciate your strong stand taken in the matter of possible cuts to our budget. If we are to persist in our efforts to make a significant impact on crime, whether it be at the federal or local level, we must have a sufficient operating budget. Certainly, it should be recognized that all economies possible should be effected, but never at the expense of public safety.

I would liked to have talked with you after my appearance before the Judiciary Committee, but, unfortunately, could not do so.

I have read of the increasing fine reports concerning your son's progress and feel confident that he is well on the way to recovery, and I am very pleased that this good news has come about. Dear Mr. Kelley:

Edward M. Kennedy

Enclosed is a copy of a letter dated March 15, 1976, to me from Senator Edward M. Kennedy. In his letter, Senator Kennedy notes his opposition to the portion of President Ford's proposed budget for Fiscal Year 1977 which would require State and local police agencies to reimburse the FBI for up to one-half the cost of police training afforded them by the FBI. Senator Kennedy states that he will urge the Senate Appropriations Committee to eliminate this proposed budget cut and will, if necessary, pursue this matter on the Senate floor.

I have acknowledged Senator Kennedy's letter and thanked him for his support.

In evaluating Senator Kennedy's statement that he will take personal action to fight the proposed budget cut, Mr. [redacted] of Knight Quality Stations, a chain of seven Massachusetts and New Hampshire radio stations, who is closely associated with Senator Kennedy and formerly handled much of Senator Kennedy's correspondence, has advised me that when Senator Kennedy takes a positive position in a letter, one can be assured that Senator Kennedy personally wrote the letter and that it was not prepared by one of his administrative assistants.

7 APR 15 1976

I am forwarding the copy of Senator Kennedy's letter to you inasmuch as I believe you will be interested in his professed statement of support for the Bureau.

Sincerely,

Dick Bates

Dear Senator Kennedy:

This is in response to your inquiry concerning the several aspects of the handling of Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests set forth in your letter of July 2nd.

The FBI does not "open a file" on requesters of information. All such correspondence, both the requester's letter and my response, is filed in a general correspondence file, unless a file already exists on the subject matter of the request, in which case the correspondence is filed there.

As you noted in your letter, our files must be reviewed when a requester seeks access to our records concerning himself. When the request is for records other than those pertaining to the requester, however, the requester's name is searched through our indices only to determine whether or not we have had prior correspondence with him on the same matter, thereby avoiding wastefully duplicative effort. Only a limited search is conducted, sufficient to determine if we are currently, or have recently been, in correspondence with the requester.

No background check is conducted concerning any requester. As mentioned above, the only "name-check process" which is conducted is done so only to avoid wasteful duplication.

I hope the above explanation is satisfactory to you. I am confident that any suspicion of our commitment to faithful implementation of the FOIA arises from a misunderstanding. Since our commitment extends to both the letter and the spirit of the FOIA, I appreciate your expression of interest, and the opportunity it has given me to dispel an apparent misunderstanding of our procedures.

Dear Mr. Kelley:

A number of persons who have requested or are requesting information from the Federal Bureau of Investigation under the Freedom of Information Act have voiced concern over newstories suggesting that the Bureau "opens a file" or such requesters of information.

While it is obvious that a file would have to be opened to facilitate the processing of a Freedom of Information request, the law clearly places no requirement on a requester to be directly or personally concerned with the matter about which he requests information (except, of course, when one is requesting access to his own file). Especially considering the large number of current requests for information being received by the FBI, it would seem an unnecessary diversion of attention from processing these requests for agents even to take time for background checks of requesters.

I would appreciate your explaining the precise procedures used by the FBI in filling Freedom of Information requests, including an identification of the index, files or other lists against which the requester's name is checked and the purpose for such check.

If you agree that this process is not only wasteful of time but also breeds continued suspicion of the FBI's commitment to faithful implementation of the Freedom of Information Act, then it would be desirable to suspend indefinitely this name-check process, at least until there is some basis to believe this process is justified.

I will look forward to your response.

I do appreciate your note and wanted to let you know some of the things I was thinking about as we were together. I don't know that I have seen two better behaved young men than your two sons. As a father myself, I know that I would appreciate such a comment coming from one who has children of his own and think that possibly this is one of the finest bits of praise that can be given to a father. I am confident you will never have to be concerned about these two young men and congratulate you upon obviously showering them with love and attention. They reflected that very visibly in their treatment given you. They most definitely adore you. No father could ask for more.

Re: Mary Jo:Kopechnes.

May I request you to re-open the above case of Mary Jo who was murdered by that cad Edward Kennedy. Why did her parents first refused to have a postmortem? The reason is simple; she was pregnant and for three months she kept it secret from Kennedy because she wanted his child not because she loved Kennedy but as she was a sort of vainglorious person and took pride in being the mistress of a future President perhaps but when she told him a month before her cruel fate, Kennedy planned to get rid of her and this is what he exactly did. After their usual orgy party, he drove her to the Pouché Pond with another girl friend/mistress and when they reached at the end of the Pond, T.K. and the girl got out, pretending that the car was not in order and Joe should take the wheel while he and the girl would see what was the matter and when in his own words (I ask you to release the break you slowly do that) and as soon as he asked Jo to release the breaks he pushed the car forward which went into the Pond and poor girl met her death in a treacherous manner. T.E. had first pleaded with her to abort the child but she refused and was willing to go and live in a suburb nearby as long as he supported the child and kept on their friendship. I am a Spaniard from mother's side and an American from father's side but was a great friend of M. Joe's former friend whom she had pledged to marry but her vanity of being a Kennedy's mistress, she broke off her engagement which was also kept secret from her parents. Why was the diary suppressed and why was a postmortem not conducted? Such a beastly bastard should be brought to justice. He has caused such a misery to his poor wife who stood by him but inwardly this cad is not at all happy and mumbles in his sleep for the crime he has committed. Since of 1977 parents descend upon their children is truly said and now he is suffering inwardly but this man should be exposed openly. Actually M. Joe used to call him "a long-eared Ass" but like Marilyn Monroe she too was flighty person and gloried in being a Kennedy's mistress. I was a very close friend of her ex-boy friend but since the incident I first roamed about from different countries to different countries and now eventually have found some peace in making my home in England. By God, if I ever happen to set my eyes on that cad, I shall shoot him. Her parents' mouths were shut by a large sum of money and future provision but now they realise that they should not have prevented the postmortem nor handed over the diary to this cad. Before you leave if you do not expose him, your follower will never do so. I cannot say more except that when the Reporters followed him and asked question what was his reaction when he said "A BEAUTIFUL GIRL is dead and you ask me how it happened?" Well, I shall always be cursing him for my exile here but have found some peace at least.

A wounded heart.

 Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Kelley:

Reference is made to my letter to you dated March 24, 1976, enclosing a copy of a letter dated March 15, 1976 to me from Senator Edward M. Kennedy, in which Senator Kennedy professed support in fighting recommended budget cuts which would require State and local police agencies to reimburse the FBI for up to one-half the cost of police training afforded them by the FBI.

Enclosed is a copy of a letter to me dated June 1, 1976, from Senator Kennedy, plus a copy of a statement submitted by him to the Senate Subcommittee on State Justice, Commerce, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies dated May 26, 1976. In the enclosed letter, Senator Kennedy reaffirms his determination to fight budget cuts affecting police training.

I am forwarding Senator Kennedy's letter and statement to you for your information and to show that Senator Kennedy is indeed following up on his prior statement that he would fight such budget cuts.

I have acknowledged Senator Kennedy's latest letter and again thanked him for his support.

Sincerely,

Rich

Enclosed are two advance copies of the October, 1977, issue of the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin. I thought you might like to see the splendid article, beginning on page five, entitled "Crime in Our Prisons," by Mr. [redacted] formerly with the Massachusetts State Police. His report on this subject, I am sure, will be of great interest to police officers throughout the country.

The distribution of our magazine, without charge, to sworn law enforcement officers is one of the cooperative services of the FBI designed to improve the exchange of information about successful law enforcement programs and thereby enhance the standards of our profession.

I'm anxious to pursue the rain check you agreed to take with respect to the commencement address at the FBI National Academy. The 115th Class will graduate Friday, December 15th. Would you please check your schedule and see if you might be available on that date. You mentioned that it would help if we could start the ceremony at an earlier hour. We would be glad to do this if it would make it possible for you to come.

Before ^{Cor Ed} Ted Kennedy would be entrusted with the Presidency of the U.S. (with our lives), the people are entitled to know what happened at Chappaquiddick.

- Did he really jump out and slam the door before the car went into the water ?
- Is it true he dove down several times to see if she (Mary Jo Kopechne) was dead before reporting the 'accident'?
- How long did she live after the car went under ? Some say up to 6 hours.
- Was she pregnant at the time?
- Are the Kopechnes being paid off now to keep quiet ?

On November 29, 1979, the Phoenix FBI Office was contacted by [REDACTED], News Director, KOY AM Radio, 840 North Central Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona, telephone number 258-8181, concerning a news release issued by Interworld Congress, which may have contained a threat to the life of Senator Ted Kennedy, who was to visit Phoenix that afternoon.

Investigation at KOY determined that a young woman, name unknown, had dropped off the press release at approximately 12:00 noon on November 29, 1979, and had immediately left the building. She had delivered two of the releases, one for the News Department of KOY and the other for the host of a talk show that ran every evening on weekdays at KOY. The person dropping the press release was further described as being short, in her early thirties, attractive, with dark brown hair, approximately 5'5" in height, slender build, wearing a black sweater over a dark colored blouse and a skirt. The woman may have worn glasses. A copy of the press release was obtained.

A copy of the press release was immediately furnished to [REDACTED] U. S. Secret Service, Phoenix, at the front entrance of the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Phoenix, where Senator Ted Kennedy was due to arrive that afternoon.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
11-27-79

PSYCHICS PRONOUNCE A WARNING TO TED KENNEDY:

"HOLDING BACK ON CHAPPAQUIDDICK MAY BE HAZARDOUS TO YOUR HEALTH!"

A team of psychics working out of Psychic Investigative Enterprises (a division of Interworld Congress) urges Senator Edward Kennedy to expose the Chappaquiddick incident or face the inevitable result of assassination.

"The situation surrounding the events at Chappaquiddick are a direct result of the events in the death of President John F. Kennedy and the attempted cover-up of those events throughout the entire 1968 campaign and murder of Robert Kennedy. Those in the know, those to whom the continuation of keeping the facts undisclosed is essential, will stop at nothing, not even murder to perpetuate the web of lies that protects a truth so horrible as to rock the American public from its hypnotic complacency. To them, Senator Kennedy is expendable.

"The fly in the ointment, however, is Edward Kennedy himself who will find it impossible to maintain his composure and to continue to spout a fabricated tale under the spotlight of pressurized interviews from an inquiring media and constituency. The whole truth about his brother John's assassination Senator Kennedy may not be in possession of but he does know what didn't happen at Chappaquiddick and it is an ironic set of circumstances that transports John Kennedy's caravan of death to Mary Jo Kopechne's cavalcade of horror.

"It is time for Senator Kennedy to stop compromising with the truth, as it is his own life that is in the balance."
